

GOOD MORNING! TODAY IS FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 2019 DAY #14

Happy birthday today to

Tonight is a Norsemen home football game. It will be so fun to cheer for the Norsemen, but there are some rules you (the students) need to follow. You are to sit with your parents or sit with Mrs. Hartzler in the elementary section. The only time you may go to the concession stand or restroom is at the quarters or half time. Go NORSE!

Our guest teacher today is Mrs. Thompson.

Are you attending the big game Saturday afternoon? Or are you just a die hard Cyclone or Hawkeye fan? The Roland Library is showing team spirit by hosting a craft program on the morning of the Cyhawk showdown beginning at 11am on Saturday September 14th. Come on over and choose your side and choose your craft colors!

Today's lunch: Chili cheese dogs, fritos, corn, pears, and milk.

Monday's breakfast: Sausage breakfast bar, grapes, and milk.

Monday's lunch: Pizza, carrots, pineapple, and milk.
