

GOOD MORNING! TODAY IS FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 2019 DAY #9

Happy birthday today to

Our guest teachers today are

The id cards that were handed out at the beginning of the year can also be used as a pass to get into the game if it has a stamp from one of the principals. To get that stamp, $50 can be given to the school.

If you would like to borrow a script for the Lion, Witch, and the Wardrobe, we have some you can use in the office.

Calling all Boys and Girls -

If you are interested in having fun with your friends, spending time outdoors and enjoy learning new things, then you have what it takes to be a Cub Scout. Parents and students, please join Pack 101 of Story City for a Come and Go informational meeting, including a Hotdog meal on Wednesday September 11th, 5:30 pm to 7:00 pm in the Elementary School Gym/Lunchroom. This meeting is for all Boys and Girls between Kindergarten to 5th Grade. We will have Trained Leaders and current Scouts on site to answer any questions you may have, along with applications to sign up. Contact information Brandon Hansen (515) 291-7236 or brandon.hansen@keycoop.com, if you can't make the meeting or want additional info.

Today's lunch: Orange chicken, vegetable fried rice, mandarin oranges, and milk.

Monday's breakfast: Ham breakfast bar, apple, and milk.

Monday's lunch: Corndogs, green beans, peaches, and milk.

Parents:

Calling all actors! JSTT Children's Theatre is holding auditions for our Christmas production, The Lion, The Witch, and the Wardrobe on Saturday, September 7th from 10:00-1:00. Auditions will be at our rehearsal space (down the hall from upper Story Studio above PDG). We will provide a reading for your audition. Just bring your ENERGY!

Learn how parents can begin saving for their child's college education. (Heisterkamp) .

Click here

