Quote of the week:

Kids deserve an excited adult. They need someone who is ready to explore and laugh with them all day-someone who is looking for those magic moments, full of high-fives coming down the line with energy radiating all around. Our kids have far more issues to deal with at home than many of us realize. School is their safety net, their safe place, their one true home. They want and need us to come to school every day, ready to surround them with love, encouragement and hope.

Leave your problems in your car. Take a deep breath and focus on the positive. Find hope. Kids need the best you. Step out and be your best every single day. Be awesome! The kids deserve it!
